

K-LOVE is more important to people than you could imagine. It's a lifeline for me some days. I listen in my car with my children who are now singing the Christian songs and play it in my home for all our friends and family to hear and know that we are trying to live a Christian lifestyle. This station is very important for so many reasons. Please make sure it stays on the air everywhere!